

ARGUMENTS AGAINST A. P. INJUNCTIONS

War News Service Seeks to Have Injunction Set Aside

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 2.—Argument in proceedings brought in effort to have set aside injunctions restraining the International News Service or Hearst from pirating news dispatches of the Associated Press today in the supreme court. The argument was made by Samuel Untermyer, attorney for the Hearst Service, and concluded tomorrow, at which Frederick W. Lehmann, present the Associated Press' side of the suit. Senator John C. Calhoun will close for Hearst Service.

Mr. Untermyer attacked especially the contention of the Associated Press that news has property value and charged that the lower court injunctions sustained the Associated Press will be allowed to be a "spot monopoly." He argued that publication of news deprives the claim to it as property and that the International News Service and any other organization is at liberty to make use of news matter once it has been published or placed on a public board. Under the lower court's injunctions, the Associated Press news receives greater sanctity than copyrighted matter because use of it by others than members would not be permitted until after publication by the 1,030 members of that organization.

Admitting that the International News Service had been guilty of selling news sent out by the other organization, the attorney insisted that the Associated Press had been guilty of the same practice despite affidavits of employees of the Associated Press denying it.

The Associated Press also was attacked by Mr. Untermyer for bringing the present proceedings at a time when Great Britain and the allied governments had decided to use of their cables to the International News Service for the transmission of news. He declared the Associated Press took advantage of this situation to institute the suit because they thought the International News Service could be destroyed.

In explanation for the action of the allied governments, Mr. Untermyer declared it was due to a news matter sent by the International News Service to its offices in this country regarding the torpedoing of the British battleship Audacious and the naval battle off Jutland and because headlines printed in one newspaper receiving the Hearst Service describing London as being in flames.

Frequent questions were asked during the argument by members of the court regarding the property value of news. They wanted to know why, although the lower courts restrained the International News Service from pirating Associated Press news through employees of newspapers taking the latter service, an appeal was taken to the supreme court only from the part of the injunctions enjoining the taking of news from bulletin boards and early editions of Associated Press newspapers. Because of the case's importance, Chief Justice White granted an additional hour to the regular three hour period usually allotted for arguments. Court officials expect the case to be concluded tomorrow afternoon.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities on Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

America is stripping for the decisive contest on the battle front of Europe. In an executive session of the military committee of the lower house of congress Secretary of War Baker, Major General March, chief of staff and Provost Marshal General Crowder have asked congress to give the president blanket authority to increase the United States army to whatever size may be necessary to win the war. This country now has nearly 2,000,000 men under arms and the army appropriation bill for this year would provide for an increase of this number to 3,000,000.

While America's plans for throwing her every resource into the battle against Prussianism are maturing, the bull which has brooded over the western battle lines, continues.

The expected German attacks on the Ypres and Amiens fronts have not been launched. Here and there the opposing armies have broken forth into wild bombardments as usual, but no prelude to massed attacks on the allied lines but they have died out after a few hours. Here and there local operations have been carried out for the purpose of straightening lines and raiding the enemy's positions, but they have not developed into anything unusual.

The Germans must attack soon or acknowledge their defeat in their ambitious attempt utterly to crush the allied armies.

The present phase of the battle is not unlike that before Verdun, two years ago after the first German rush had been stopped and even attempts to carry local objectives had met with defeat.

Germany has lost heavily but the emperor still has reserves to throw into the fight.

The report that Czech soldiers, deserting from the Austrian army now are fighting with the Italians has been followed by a despatch saying that Roumanians who had been captured by the Italians have asked permission to fight against the Austrians and that they now are on the firing line.

The British forces in Palestine have recaptured Es-Salt a village from which they retired three weeks ago under pressure from a superior force of Turks and Germans.

A Berlin report says that the fortress of Sebastopol has been occupied by the Germans. This was expected after the capture of Simferopol last week.

Ukraine peasant deputies are reported to have overthrown the government of that republic. This report follows closely a despatch saying that many Ukrainian officials had been imprisoned by the Germans for conspiring against the military authorities of the central powers. The new regime has announced that it will carry out provisions of the Brest-Litovsk treaty.

PLANNING TO TORPEDO U. S. HOSPITAL SHIPS

(By Associated Press) London, May 2.—The German wireless which a few days ago sent out a dispatch alleging that American aviators were crossing to Europe on hospital ships, reiterates these charges today. The reason for the emphasis placed on this false charge by the Germans, it is pointed out, probably is that they are laying the foundation for justification at a later date of the torpedoing of American hospital ships in case any such ships are put in the trans-Atlantic service to carry home invalid soldiers who may be recalled to similar charges were spread broadcast about British hospital ships as a prelude to torpedoing them.

The British admiralty has already denied the charge that American aviators were crossing on hospital ships, saying: "No hospital ship, British or American, has ever carried any body but invalids and the necessary medical staff. The American naval authorities state they have some aviators who were in the allied ambulance service in France before the United States came into the war, but even in such cases these men crossed the Atlantic in ordinary ships, taking their full chance of being torpedoed."

STATE TO PAY PRAGER FUNERAL EXPENSES

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 2.—Funeral expenses of Robert P. Prager, lynched last month at Collinsville because of alleged sedition, will be paid for by the state of Illinois, Governor Frank O. Lowden informed Secretary of State Lansing today.

The German government recently declared that it "would guarantee all proper and fitting funeral expenses of Prager, forwarding the offer through the Swiss legation. As a result the bill of $197 was presented to the Swiss minister in Washington.

In a communication to Governor Lowden, Secretary Lansing said: "The guarantee given by the legation was a formality which it hardly expected to be called upon to fulfill, believing that the authorities of the state in which Prager was lynched would consider it their moral obligation to give him proper burial at their own expense."

TO SET NO LIMIT ON NUMBER MEN TO BE CALLED

Amendment to Draft Law to Be Prepared Immediately

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 2.—Blanket authority for the president to increase the army to whatever size may be necessary to win the war was proposed to the house military committee in executive session today by Secretary Baker. Major General March, chief of staff and Provost Marshal General Crowder, all in favor of the measure, which would give the president authority to increase the size of the army as rapidly as transportation and equipment facilities may warrant would have a great psychological effect on the enemy by showing how thoroughly the nation is throwing all its resources into the conflict. The army appropriation bill this year, Mr. Baker said, should provide for approximately 3,000,000 men including the nearly two million now under arms, but this should not be accepted as any fixed limit to the number of men to be called within the year. Supplemental appropriations, he said, will be submitted as the army is increased.

Action on the army appropriation bill has been deferred by the committee pending the return of the war secretary from Europe when it could secure from him information as to the army's needs based upon the knowledge he gained during his inspection of the American Expeditionary forces and his conferences with British, French and Italian officials.

Explains Opposition Secretary Baker also outlined to the committee today the reason why he opposes house amendments to the senate resolution to change the basis of the draft quota from state population to the number of men in class one, under which states would be given credit for men who have volunteered for service in the army and navy. He said such credits would be fair if the basis was to be state populations but that they would not be fair with the basis the number of men in class one because then some states would have to furnish no draft men, while others would have to furnish a very high percentage.

Changes His Mind When the resolution to change the draft quota basis was before the house President Wilson wrote Chairman Dent of the military committee supporting the voluntary credits plan but he was reported today as having changed his mind in view of the inequity that would result. It is understood that he will write Chairman Dent, asking the house to recede from its insistence on its amendments. There were indications today that an administration bill to grant unlimited power to the president to increase the size of the army will meet with opposition.

Chairman Dent has not abandoned the bill but prepared without consultation with the war department which would limit the total number of men now drafted or to be hereafter drafted to four million and he intimated today that he might seek its incorporation in the army appropriation bill.

U. S. AVIATOR BRINGS DOWN FOURTH PLANE

Lieut. Meisner of Brooklyn Shoots Down an Albatross Scout—Aerial Battle at 15,000 Feet.

With the American Army in France, May 2.—By the Associated Press.—An American aviator has brought down the fourth German airplane along the American front northwest of Toul. Lieutenant James A. Meisner, whose home is Brooklyn after a thrilling aerial battle at 15,000 feet shot down an Albatross scout which fell in flames. Lieutenant Meisner is twenty years of age and qualified as a pilot here. While he was protecting a photographing plane a German machine came in view. The day was brilliant with sunshine. A French plane started for the German but Meisner who was flying high nearby in a speedy Nieuport Chaser, made a dive for the German's tail. When within range he opened fire with his machine gun and the German started a spiral nose dive but after a few seconds straightened out and started back for Germany.

Meisner followed so closely when the German straightened out that the latter's wing tore both of the under wings of Meisner's machine but at the same time the young American poured a deadly stream of bullets into the enemy plane which started smoking. Meisner kept up the fire until the German machine burst into flames and crashed to the earth. The American pilot landed safely on his own side of the lines, but the German fell about a mile inside the German line to the south of Thiaucourt. The American infantry men in the front lines watched the engagement from start to finish and cheered loudly another American air victory.

He was appointed a major in the national army after resigning from the British army. His widow is a Red Cross nurse.

PANA SALOONS MUST QUIT BUSINESS

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., May 2.—The "dry" majority by which 16 saloons were banished at Pana last month was increased from 12 to 19 as a result of a recount of the ballots completed in the county court here today.

Thirty-nine ballots are still in doubt and are under consideration of the court. These ballots are about equally divided between the "wet" and "dry" and would not affect the result materially, it is said, if all were thrown out.

$249,000,000 REMAINS TO BE SUBSCRIBED

Prospects for Over-Subscription of Third Loan are Hopeful

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 2.—Only $249,000,000 remains to be subscribed to the third liberty loan to reach the three billion minimum goal and a headquarters statement tonight said "Prospects for an over-subscription are hopeful."

The total reported tonight was $2,551,360,500, which did not include subscriptions obtained today. It was an addition of $172,000,000 in the last twenty-four hours.

The movement to keep individuals to pay $50 bonds to keep pace with President Wilson, who subscribed for a "baby bond" after already buying all he felt able to pay for, grew beyond bounds planned by originators of the feature, and telegrams received today characterized it as the distinctive campaign feature of the third loan.

Following is the treasury's report by districts:

District. Subscriptions. Per. Minneapolis. $133,523,400 129 St. Louis. 163,730,450 125 Kansas City. 151,562,850 116 Chicago. 148,314,150 38 Boston. 244,172,000 97 San Francisco. 201,324,650 95 Dallas. 75,300,200 94 Philadelphia. 222,313,150 98 Cleveland. 257,330,850 85 Richmond. 111,711,800 85 New York. 706,976,650 78 Atlanta. 63,100,550 70 St. Louis is the first city of more than 500,000 population by the 1910 census to celebrate its full quota, Detroit, which now has more than that population went across the top some time ago, but it is placed in a different class because its population in 1910 was slightly under 500,000.

WILL SUBMIT CASE TO SHIPPING BOARD

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The question of wages for seamen on American vessels in the Atlantic trade, overseas and coastwise, which, with that of living conditions aboard ship, has occupied the attention of the shipping labor conference here for several days was disposed of today by both sides agreeing to submit their case to the shipping board for decision. Application of the Pacific scale to Atlantic boats was asked with the 50 per cent bonus for war zone work retained.

Industrial conscription as a means of preventing stoppage of essential war work by men quitting their jobs was advocated before the conference by J. B. Rolfs, speaking for the Pacific Coast shippers.

The suggestion was made after union officers had said they would be unable to enter into a wage agreement for the period of the war because the men would not bind themselves for any indefinite time and probably would quit work because conditions would be changing frequently.

"The remarks of the union officials indicate a lack of power," Mr. Rolfe asserted. "The ship owners believe that industrial conscription should be enforced to secure men to carry out the war."

CHARGES BROUGHT TO FLOOR OF SENATE

Investigation With View to Criminal Prosecution Demanded in Connection With Aircraft Program.

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 2.—Charges and intimations of irregularities in connection with the aircraft program which have been established and discussed in capitol cloak rooms for some time, were brought to the floor of the senate today with demands for a new investigation with a view to criminal prosecution.

Later committee members conferred with Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor (who made a report to the president on the aircraft program and it was said that whether the committee would act depended on information to be submitted by Mr. Borglum the next few days.

Senator Hitchcock, dwelling on alleged misdeeds of the public regarding aircraft production told the senate the aircraft board has been "playing a gigantic confidence game in the whole country." He declared that the liberty motor in fact is nothing but the Packard Motor improved and that the government is contemplating paying the Packard Motor company between $500,000 and $1,000,000 for its interest.

Attorney General Gregory stated the department of justice would be glad to investigate the entire aircraft production situation under request by the president or congress. He also said the department would welcome any complaints of specific cases of violation of law either by extravagant use of government money or in connection with attempts to obstruct the building program and damage machines.

While the debate in the senate was in progress Senator Wadsworth of New York filed a report compiled by an investigating committee of the aeronautical society of America which charges that not more than five per cent of the facilities for building aircraft had been utilized. Without attempting to fix responsibility for delays and failures the reports makes charges of inefficiency and brands as false and misleading statements on the progress of the building program attributed to Secretary Baker.

CITY OF ATHENS HAD PLENTY OF LIFE BOATS

Doomed Vessel Carried Nine Boats Accommodating 242

(By Associated Press) AN ATLANTIC PORT, May 2.—The Steamship City of Athens had almost twice her required complement of lifeboats when she was rammed and sunk by a French cruiser off the Delaware coast yesterday morning according to L. Collins, superintendent of the Ocean Steamship company in a statement issued today. The vessel carried nine boats accommodating 242 persons, he declared and there were 135 on board, sixty-nine of whom were lost. Mr. Collins gave out a revised list of dead showing that 37 passengers and 32 of the crew went down with the liner. Thirty-three passengers and the same number of the crew were picked up by boats lowered from the French warship.

The Ocean Steamship company today gave out the following revised list of persons lost on the City of Athens:

Two independent investigations of the accident began today. The Ocean Steamship company, owner of the City of Athens, took the testimony of Captain Forward and other officers of the ship who were saved. A naval attaché from the French Embassy in the United States and a French admiral who was aboard the cruiser at the time of the collision began questioning officers of the warship. The naval attaché said the shock of the collision brought down the cruiser's foremast. He added that the coast liner's bow was so crushed that everyone in the forward part undoubtedly was killed in the collision.

Superintendent Collins was authority for the statement that the City of Athens was passed on annual inspection by the United States steamboat inspection service in Savannah in February. Since that time her life boats were thoroughly overhauled and new falls provided for every boat. Subsequent government inspection made semi-monthly, he asserted had resulted in approval of the vessel's life saving equipment.

The City of Athens was licensed Mr. Collins declared to carry 242 persons including the normal crew of 65 and 177 passengers. She

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS SHOW PATRIOTISM.
At a special called meeting held at their lodge rooms last night the local council of the Knights of Columbus voted unanimously to make a united effort for the sale of Liberty bonds, war savings stamps and thrift stamps.

It is the intention of the council to have an account opened in each of the different banks in the city so that the different members may arrange with their respective banks about the purchase of the bonds and have the local council given credit for the united effort.

The local council has fifty-one of its members, most of whom are volunteers now in the service, and the balance of its membership stands pledged to spend their last dollar and every ounce of their energy to assist President Wilson and his grand army and navy in establishing democracy for the world for all time to come.

Soliciting committees were appointed who will call on the entire membership regarding the campaign.

PRINTERS WITH THE COLORS.
(By Marsden G. Scott.)
President, International Typographical Union.

Nearly three thousand members of the International Typographical Union are now in active war service with the military and naval forces of the United States and Canada. The lives of more than three score of our members have been snuffed out on the battlefields of France, and a dozen more have died in military camps since the beginning of the war. We have sacrificed liberally to the three Liberty loans; our members are purchasing thousands of thrift stamps, and we are contributing generously to the Red Cross and other patriotic funds.

The sons of many newspaper publishers have joined the American expeditionary forces, and from the editorial-rooms, the business offices, the composing rooms, the press rooms and from every department thousands of men have marched away many of them perhaps never to return.

But this is not enough. The story of each day's tragedy in France but emphasizes the need for courage and grim determination on the part of those behind the lines. The eyes of the civilization have turned to America. To falter now is to place in jeopardy every hope, every ambition, every ideal which civilization has established. We must win this war or bow in submission to those who rule by the sword.

Thanks to the splendid co-operation given to the government and to the nation by the members of the American Newspaper Publishers association, the citizens of this great republic have been aroused to the enormity of the crime which the Hun butcher contemplated. A tremendous task lies before us, and God knows the nation needs the steady, encouraging, sympathetic, and patriotic influence of the American press, and that all this and more will be forthcoming.

GEORGE RYAN IS PLACED ON PROBATION FOR YEAR
Final Chapter of Winchester Fight Case Closes When Defendant Enters Plea of Guilty and Is Released on Probation by Judge Smith—Other Items of Interest.

Winchester, May 2.—In the case of the People vs. George Ryan, charged with assault with intent to kill, the defendant this afternoon changed his plea of not guilty to one of guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court after evidence had been introduced showing aggravation, and the court, dismissing the jury, placed the defendant under probation for one year.

The case, which was the result of a fight which took place on the public square here on the 30th day of September, 1916, between the defendant, George Ryan, and Charles Terhune, has been watched by a great deal of interest by Scott county people and each day the court room has been well filled with spectators eager to hear the testimony offered. Both men are well known hereabouts, both residing on farms north of this place.

Testimony was resumed in the case before Judge Smith this morning when court convened. Evidence of aggravation was offered and the defendant withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of assault with a club with intent to kill Charles Terhune and judgment entered on the plea. Defendant then entered motion to be admitted to probation. The court held that the circumstances were such that the defendant should be admitted to probation, which was done, and the defendant ordered to pay the costs of prosecution and report to the probation officer the first of each month for one year.

William Hawk Dies.
The death of William Hawk occurred Wednesday night at 10:20 o'clock at his home, 60 and one half miles northeast of here. Mr. Hawk, who was 58 years of age last October, had been in poor health for some time, but was not confined to his bed, except during the last few hours of his illness. He had been a resident of Scott county practically all of his life and followed the occupation of a farmer. Deceased is survived by the widow, one son and two daughters, and a number of other relatives. The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church.

News Notes.
Henry Vannier left Thursday morning for St. Louis to obtain a Saxon car he recently purchased. He will return in the car.

John Coe was a business visitor in St. Louis Wednesday.

Mrs. Scott Peak, Miss Kate Armitage and Mrs. Whitlock of Exeter were visitors here this afternoon, making the trip in the Whitlock car.

OFFER SERVICES FOR RED CROSS WORK
Arthur Wyatt, Edward Joaquin, Wayne Lewis and Russell Wood tendered their services to the local Red Cross chapter Thursday afternoon, to run errands and do any other work that may come to hand. The boys are all students at David Prince school and have their afternoon off. They thought they could do their bit by working for the Red Cross, which is in reality a service for the government. The ladies in charge accepted the offer of the boys and feel that they will be of great value to the chapter.

"Y" CAMPAIGN MOVES STEADILY ALONG
Subscriptions Have Not Reached Desired Mark But Teams are Enthusiastically at Work—Rev. M. L. Pontius Testifies to Good Influence of Local Association—The Team Records.

Total Y. M. C. A. Subscriptions Team Amount
W. E. Spoons.....$ 400.00
L. T. Potter.....174.50
Fletcher Hopper.....212.00
Mrs. J. H. Danskin.....204.00
Eb Spink.....584.00
T. W. Callahan.....330.50
C. B. Graff.....581.00
Mrs. O. E. Tandy.....188.50
Total.....$2,674.50

Thursday was the fourth day of the Y. M. C. A. campaign for funds and the teams at the noon day luncheon reported additional subscriptions of $637.50. This brings the total to Thursday noon of $2,674.50. Since $8,000 must be raised and there remain but two days it is quite evident that some larger subscriptions must be forthcoming. The original list included 1200 names of possible subscribers and yesterday 500 additional names were submitted. It is probable at the luncheon today will be announced that the campaign is now open to general solicitation and that members of the team may canvass any person without transgressing upon the territory of other workers.

The chairman, Rev. E. K. Towle, read the following letter from Rev. M. L. Pontius, who was compelled to give up his work as chairman in order to assist the Liberty Y. M. C. A. work during the remaining days of this week. That Mr. Pontius has great faith in the work of the local Y. M. C. A. was apparent from this letter, which reads as follows:

Letter from Mr. Pontius
Kirkville, Mo., April 30, 1918.
Rev. E. K. Towle,
Jacksonville, Ill.
My Dear Bro. Towle:
Dear Friends: I am sorry I could not remain with you in the Y drive. May I impress on your minds the necessity of raising this money this week. It will be an actual disgrace to Jacksonville and Morgan county if this goal of $8,000 is not reached by May 4. No fair minded citizen can afford to turn away from an appeal for the support of an organization that does so much for the boys of our city as the Y. M. C. A.

Men may criticize the old building and inadequate equipment—but the good influence of the Y. continues constant and effective. Then patriotic citizens of Jacksonville and Morgan county must have this local organization as a basis for the great task in raising thousands of dollars for the Army Y work which is so essential if we are to win this war.

Tell the citizens of our city and county to lay aside carping criticism which is never constructive or conducive to progress and go "over the top" in this drive, proving that neither they nor their dollars are slackers. May God bless you in your effort and give you victory.

Very fraternally,
M. L. Pontius.

It was stated by the chairman that at the noonday meeting today the city will be divided into districts and assignments of territory made to the teams.

Purpose of Campaign.
Secretary Findlay again explained why it is necessary to raise the $8,000. Of this sum $4,000 is needed for current expenses and $2,000 as a first payment on the mortgage due June 1. Special memberships for boys who cannot pay their own fees amount to $1,000 and another $1,000 is required to pay an indebtedness incurred the past year largely because boys' numbers have gone into the war and further because of the change in the fiscal year. The secretary brought out the fact that local Young Men's Christian Associations are integral parts of the army Y. M. C. A., that they furnished the ground work upon which that splendid superstructure has been built.

He enumerated some of the activities of the association in the past year. Assistance was given in raising $53,000 in four counties of which Morgan is a part. The boys' conference was distinctly beneficial and eight fathers and sons banquets were arranged thru the organization. The Y. M. C. A. here is recruiting headquarters for six counties for workers in the Y. M. C. A. overseas. There have been two Sunday school basket ball tournaments and two grade school basketball tournaments, together with regular gymnasium and athletic work. The Hi Y club and the boys' Bible classes to the number of eight represent other excellent activities. There is a great deal more helpful work being done thru the Y. M. C. A. than a great many people realize. The additional contributions reported up to noon Thursday were as follows:

THE NEW LABOR PLAN AT STATE INSTITUTIONS.
The letter sent yesterday by I. O. Vaughn to A. L. Bowen, superintendent of charities for the state of Illinois, presents a very interesting view of the question of utilizing labor from Jacksonville State hospital at the other state institutions here. There is much about the plan adopted by the department of welfare in finding outdoor employment for patients at the state school which deserves commendation. The idea of doing certain classes of work at the other institutions by use of those who are cared for at the hospital also seems to be dictated by good business judgment.

However, some of the reasons advanced by Mr. Vaughn merit the careful consideration of Mr. Bowen and the department. Economy is desirable but it is by no means the most important item to be considered in the conduct of the state institutions. Illinois is very well able to take proper care of its wards. It is easy to understand that the purposes of the schools for the blind and deaf and the Jacksonville state hospital are entirely different. Certainly the association between the pupils of the school for the deaf and patients from the insane hospital as workers on farm and garden or in any other line of activity would not be of a helpful kind. Because of certain personal habits many of these persons of deficient mentality are not fitted to serve as examples for younger associates.

From a newspaper viewpoint it looks as if the department of public welfare plan is excellent in many points but that some amendments in the method of handling are advisable for the best interests of pupils at the state schools here.

EVERYBODY SHOULD BE AT WORK.
With such a great demand for labor in all lines, the wonder is that there are idle men, yet a walk thru central park and about the square almost any day will show men who are out of employment. The chances are out of employment they do not really want to work for the general conditions thruout the country is two jobs for every man. This situation, however, is not local, for T. J. Foley, vice president of the Illinois Central road, has recently been conducting an investigation as to the why and the wherefore of so many able-bodied idlers in the towns and cities thru which the Illinois Central passes.

Altho the Illinois Central is needing more men than the road can find, whenever a train pulls into a town along the line there are idle men on the watch. Mr. Foley thinks that some plan should be followed for getting these men onto the farm and into work shops instead of permitting them to stand around with their hands in their pockets. This is what Mr. Foley said with reference to this subject and his investigation.

"The one job which we have on hand at present, winning the great war and it follows that every person who is able to work, but who is not at work, is a liability instead of an asset to his country, and should be held up to scorn. I firmly believe that a strong public sentiment against idlers in each community would make it so uncomfortable for the idlers that they would be driven to work. Some of them would drift into agriculture, others into manufacturing industries and the railroads would get their share. This is a free unless every person exerts himself at this time to the very limit of his capacity."

"If there ever was a time when every person, regardless of age, color or station in life should be at work, it is now. Rest and leisure should be deferred until after the war has been won, until after freedom has been on-

A GOOD SIGN TWO TELEPHONE CALLS BRING TWO NASH ORDERS
Whenever an automobile keeps continually oversold, two facts are significant. First, that the automobile is either so far ahead of every other car in its price class that it sells itself; or that the representative of the automobile is a graduate in salesmanship. Not claiming to have qualities of salesmanship superior to those of competitors, it follows that the first named fact is most significant, viz: That the Nash Six, with its "perfected valve-in-head motor," really sells itself. Rainy as it was all day yesterday, C. W. Jacobs, manager of the Jacobs Motor Car Co., received two telephone calls, each of which resulted in a sale of a Nash Six. Both calls came within two hours, one from a prominent farmer and the other from a banker. We are still a month behind with orders.

MATRIMONIAL

Michael-Clerihan

A very pretty nuptial event was solemnized Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock at St. Patrick's church at Alton, when Robert Michael of that city was married to Miss Loretta Clerihan of Jacksonville. After the ceremony was performed nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. F. E. Kehoe, who officiated at the marriage.

The bride was attired in a pretty traveling suit of dark blue and wore an attractive hat to match. They were attended by Miss Thomasina Clerihan, sister of the bride, and Charles Oueseth of Alton. An all day reception was held at the Michael home on Central avenue, a wedding breakfast being served early in the day. At 1 o'clock luncheon was served.

Among the out of town guests were Harold Kern of St. Louis, a cousin of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Burg of Jerseyville. The house was decorated in red, white and blue. Mr. Michael is in the next call and the young couple decided to be married before he was called into service. Both are well known here and in Alton where the groom has always lived. After a brief visit with the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Clerihan, 133 E. Independence avenue, they will return to their home in Alton, 922 Fountain street.

WHY CITY HORSES HAVE BEEN SOLD

Commissioner Cox Explains Why City Disposed of Horses Belonging to Street Department.

Believing that many people in Jacksonville have wondered at the action of the city in disposing of the horses belonging to the street department, Commissioner Jerry Cox yesterday stated the exact situation of the department and the reasons for selling these fine animals.

Commissioner Cox's statement follows: "Many people in the last few days have inquired why the City of Jacksonville sold the horses belonging to the Street Department. In view of the fact that the public is interested in such matters and have a right to the fullest information concerning them, I consider it proper to explain why it was necessary to sell them.

"I have always been a lover of good horses and when I went into office, I determined to obtain for the City the best horses that I could find. The two teams that I purchased for my department were very good and cost the City the sum of $840.00. Those teams have been in the continuous service of the City for more than two years, during which time they have been well taken care of. Last harvest I bought the hay for them at $15 and $16 per ton. Before half of it was used, hay was selling from $20 to $25 per ton, while in March of this year it sold as high as $28 per ton. The most of our oats cost us from $0.57 to $0.60 per bushel. Some $5 to $6 cents, and our corn cost about $1.40 per bushel. It is plain, therefore, that considerable money was saved the City on account of feed.

"About 10 days ago both of the drivers quit working. The City was unable to pay them except in due bills and the men were unable to get the due bills cashed. Those men work for a living and they had to have money to live on. They were satisfactory employees and would have continued had they been able to cash their due bills. Out of course, we can't expect men to work unless they are being paid. The horses, with no one to drive them, were standing in the barn idle. It was costing the City about $3.00 per day to feed them and it was therefore deemed advisable to sell them. They were sold for $925 which was $85 more than they cost. Besides getting the use of these horses for more than two years they were sold at a profit of almost $100.

"Just now we have only enough men to take care of the sewers and to sweep the square. When those men are not cleaning sewers, they are cleaning the streets. Personally, I should like to have enough men to keep the streets in the best condition, but the street department cannot accomplish much without money.

"Before election, I stated that I would take charge of the department that fell to my lot. I have done so and by that alone saved the City $900. Furthermore, I have furnished my own horse so that I could get over the City and better attend to business. I have always taken great pride in the City and am sorry indeed that there are no funds for my department so as to properly maintain the streets. Personally, I believe that it was best for the city to sell the horses rather than have them idle and making more expense on account of feed. I shall endeavor to obtain men and teams as soon as time to do the work and will try at all times to give the City the best possible service with the money and means at hand.

"Respectfully,
"Jerry Cox,
"Street Commissioner."

had only 70 passengers on her list on the last trip.
The company's investigation, Mr. Collins said showed the liner's running lights were on but there was no deck and cabin illumination when the crash occurred. The French cruiser he said showed only running lights. Captain Forward was on watch in the pilot house at the time of the collisions. He had retired earlier in the evening with instructions to be called in case of fog. The first officer summoned him on deck shortly after midnight and the commander was on duty when the warship appeared thru a heavy fog about 1 a. m. and tore its way into the side of the liner.
C. B. Smith, general counsel for the steamship company took the testimony of Captain Forward and the officers of the City of Athens today. Their stories, Mr. Smith said, bore out the original reports of the accident in a general way. Captain Forward, the lawyer asserted, declared that the cruiser was going at high speed when she struck the passenger ship. The latter rolled over so far under the impact of the blow and the rush of water into her hold that systematic rescue work was impossible. The Ocean Steamship company stated that W. W. Lillie and B. J. Graham of Brooklyn whose bodies were recovered were not United States marines as originally listed.
18,000 SOLDIERS CAPTURED
Paris, May 2.—Eighteen thousand soldiers of Rumanian origin who were captured by the Italians while fighting under the Austrian flag, have asked permission to go to the front against Austria. The request has been granted, and organization of these troops is under way.
PNEUMONIA VICTIM
Rockford, Ill., May 2.—Private Thomas Hewgly, Company F, Thirty-Second Engineers, died at Camp Grant base hospital last night of pneumonia. His home was in Madison, Missouri. There were 836 patients in the base hospital today.

TO INTRODUCE SUNDAY BASEBALL
Pittsburgh, Pa., May 2.—The Brooklyn and Philadelphia teams of the National League will meet in a championship game Sunday, May 5, at Harrison, N. J., and the New York American League team will play a championship game on the following Sunday at the same place as part of an experiment to introduce Sunday baseball in the east and permit patrons of the sport in New York City to witness games on Sunday.
This was decided on tonight at the concluding session of a conference here of B. B. Johnson, president of the American League; John K. Tener, president of the National League; John B. Heydler, secretary of the National League, and Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh National Club and chairman of the joint committee of the two leagues.
Secretary Heydler stated tonight that no definite schedule of Sunday games at Harrison had been decided upon. The American League game may be played on the following Sunday or the first Sunday the New York club is in the east.
HEAVY BOMBARDMENT. BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, May 2.—via Ottawa.—Early this morning the Germans heavily bombarded with gas shells and high explosives the allied positions west of Merville and the area around Villers-Bretonneux. There was no infantry action.
The allies have been profiting by the lull to prepare to meet any fresh enemy effort.
During Wednesday the British carried out a successful enterprise south of the Ancre advancing the front over a width of nearly half a mile to a depth of 400 yards. The weather was improved and the airmen were doing deadly work over enemy positions.
BLOW UP GERMAN HALL
Sioux City, Ia., May 2.—A small hall used by the Sons of Herman, a German order at Dakota City, Neb., near here, was blown up with dynamite early this morning. The loss is small.
Rome, May 2.—The pope has nominated the Right Rev. Patrick Hayes, auxiliary bishop of New York as bishop of the American army at the front.

REASONS GIVEN IN EXECUTIVE SESSION
Washington, May 2.—Reasons why the state department does not consider war declarations against Turkey and Bulgaria necessary at this time were given the senate foreign relations committee in executive session today by Secretary Lansing. He is understood to have stated that the soldiers of neither of these allies of Germany have come into action against Americans and that Americans are being protected in both countries.
Without making any recommendation for or against action the secretary is said to have contented himself with a statement of the department's attitude and of the confidential information in its files.
NO NOTIFICATION
Detroit, Mich., May 2.—Joe Jackson, left fielder of the Chicago Americans who according to reports from South Carolina last night has been placed in Class One of the selective draft had received no notification of his new draft classification today. Jackson said there was more than a possibility that the man named in last night's despatch was another of the same name. He said he knew positively of another Joe Jackson registered in his district.
NO JURY SECURED.
Peoria, Ill., May 2.—When the circuit court adjourned tonight eleven jurors had been selected to try Edgar A. Strause for the murder of Berne M. Mead, bank cashier, and attorneys for both the state and the defense were confident that the twelfth man would be secured before adjournment tomorrow and the trial actually started.
Several times today the jury box was filled when a tentatively accepted juror was excused by one side or the other on a peremptory challenge.
BOARD GIVES WARNING.
Washington, May 2.—Reports that shipyard workers in some communities have been subject to flagrant abuses by rent profiteers induced the shipping board tonight to give warning that it will not hesitate to employ the drastic preventative powers given it by congress.
The board's action was prompted particularly by reports received from Newport News Va., that shipyard workers were being forced out by landlords so that the houses might be re-let to non-war workers.

SEED CORN STILL IMPORTANT SUBJECT
Situation Has Not Cleared in Satisfactory Way. Altho Planting Season is at Hand.
So much has been said about the need of testing seed corn that many farmers believe the danger of not having sufficient good seed has passed. However, C. A. Rowe, local authority, said recently that the campaign urging farmers to test seed should be still carried on vigorously. Many of the tests made have shown that seed farmers have counted as satisfactory will not germinate to the desired percentage. Those who tested their seed corn several months ago will be wise in making other tests now.
On this subject the state council of defense recently issued the following article:
Illinois led the nation as a crop producing state last year. Illinois can lead this year if the usual corn acreage is planted — with seed which will grow.
Reports to the state seed corn administration show that only a few counties—in the southern part of the state—have a sufficient supply of sure grain seed. No county in the great central corn belt or in the northern part of the state, the reports show, has an adequate supply of reliable seed.
These facts make the situation serious. The planting season is at hand. Farmers in great numbers have put their faith in seed which is not dependable. Each should remember this year's situation is an extraordinary one. There is an imperative demand for the greatest crop the state has ever produced.
No farmer in these circumstances should take chances. Each should subject his seed to the germination test. If it fails to meet that he should order his supply at once from Seed Corn Administrator, 120 W. Adams street, Chicago.
Failure to do this will result in one of two things: (1) reduction of corn acreage, or (2) a replanting demand for tested seed so heavy that the administration will have difficulty in meeting it.
Quick action by all farmers is absolutely necessary. The planting season will not wait. And the corn grower dares wait only at his own and his country's peril.

FORMER JACKSONVILLE BOY KILLED IN ACTION
Arthur C. Franz, son of Charles Franz, Former Proprietor of Dunlap Hotel, Pays Supreme Sacrifice on European Battle Field—Was Slain April 20th.
Word received here yesterday from Charles Franz at Edina, Mo. stated that his son, Arthur C. Franz, had been killed in action. The wire from Edina read as follows:
"W. L. Fay, Jacksonville.
Just received telegram that Arthur C. Franz was killed in action April 20.
Charles Franz."
Young Franz was a member of Co. C, 102nd United States Infantry, enlisting last fall. He had been overseas for a number of months.
Deceased is survived by his parents and one sister, Mrs. Edward Beck of Davenport, Iowa.
Ready for Every Duty
That Private Franz had seen action prior to the date on which he met his death is evidenced by statements which he made in letters received in this city telling of his service in front line trenches. Altho he unquestionably knew what dangers the future held for him, what privation and hardship lay ahead, yet in his letters there was ever a cheerful spirit and no word of complaint or any thought other than to do his duty.
"Art" had many friends in Jacksonville who will learn of his death with sorrow and regret. He made this city his home for several years, when his father conducted the Dunlap House here. Even after the elder Franz moved to Chicago Art preferred Jacksonville as his place of residence for a time. His was a likeable disposition, and his ready handshake and cheery greeting invariably made him friends.
Coincident with the telegram announcing his death two letters were received in Jacksonville yesterday from Mr. Franz. One was received by W. A. Walker, the grocer, and the other by Miss Vivian Boston, 133 Pine street. These letters were both written on April 12th, eight days before his death. He mentions having "done my little bit in the front line trenches the same as every true American here has done," and it is possible that his vacation from the front line was not of long duration and that after a brief rest, he with other members of his dauntless company, returned to bear their share of the enemy's assaults.
The letter received by Miss Boston yesterday morning is given herewith:
In Active Service
American Expeditionary Forces
April 12, 1918.
Dear Vivian:
Received your letter some time ago but this is the first chance I have had to answer it. Yesterday when the mail came the sergeant handed me a letter from the "old town" but I could not make out who it was from until I opened it and saw it was from an old married man. Said he was out on West State street and met you and so you gave him my address and he wrote me and yesterday I got the letter. It was just like getting paid to get his letter because that is what every one over here is looking for. Some of them get a bunch of newspapers about two months old and say, the time we have! Oh, boy! Sometimes we argue about songs and shows we are going to see and hear when we get back home, which we hope is soon.
Mud and Rain Mar Uniforms
Sure, the boys look grand in their uniforms in nice dry weather, but after one is over here in this country where it rains for two months straight and everything is all covered with mud, that is a different matter. The sun came out yesterday the first time for about ten days, and it was certainly welcome. It is out this morning but don't think it will stay out, as two days might be too much. Might overwork it.
Well, I have done my little bit in the front line trenches the same as every true American soldier has done. Came out with a lot of body lice on me, and think I got more than my share. One of the very hardest jobs over here is trying to write a letter that will pass the censors. Every one has to be careful what they write. Expect more letters from you by the time you get this one. Sometimes may not get a chance to write and then it takes about three weeks to arrive in Jacksonville, so don't get the writer's cramp.
So will bring this to a close with my regards to all my Jacksonville friends, if I have any there.
Yours,
Arthur C. Franz.
Co. C, 102d U. S. Infantry.

WORK IN SURGICAL DRESSINGS STOPPED
Shortage in Material Causes Closing of This Branch of Red Cross Work Until Next Tuesday—Other Departments Open as Usual—May Quota Received.
Owing to a shortage in materials the surgical dressings branch of the Red Cross chapter will be closed until next Tuesday.
Upon receipt of the May quota for the local branch a requisition was made on headquarters in Chicago for the necessary material. Word came back that there is temporary shortage of dressings material throughout the country. Much to the regret of the ladies who have displayed such great interest in the work it was necessary to close the surgical dressings branch until next Tuesday.
The local Red Cross management, however, wishes it understood that this only affects the surgical dressings department. All other departments located at the Public Library will be open as usual for work.
The quota for the Morgan county surgical dressings department received from Chicago consists of the following: Twelve thousand tampons, 4,000 gauze drains and 3,000 pads with attached bands.
These articles are made in the various chapters and assembled at headquarters and arranged in what are known as front line parcels, No. 5 Blue Label. The packages are distributed to the men on the firing line.
Each package contains a first aid kit composed of pads with attached bands, six 8 by 4 compresses, two 1 by 3 gauze drains, six tampons and an applicator. The kits are often of great value to the men for use before medical aid can be had.

LABOR PLAN AT STATE INSTITUTIONS DISCUSSED

O. Vaughn Takes Issue With Statements Made by A. L. Bowen of Department of Public Welfare.

Recently thru the Jacksonville papers Mr. A. L. Bowen of the department of public welfare, superintendent of charities for the state of Illinois, addressed a letter to the people of Jacksonville explaining the purposes of the department in using workers from Jacksonville state hospital all three of the local state institutions. The letter was occasioned by the fact that there has been some criticism of the method followed, the claim being made that the use of insane patients for farm and garden labor at the State School for the Deaf deprives the boys there of a certain amount of helpful training.

L. O. Vaughn, who for a number of years was connected with the State School for the Deaf and who has some knowledge of methods followed in similar institutions, takes issue with the policy adopted by Supt. Bowen and his associates. He yesterday addressed the following letter to Mr. Bowen:

Jacksonville, Ill., May 2, 1918.

Mr. A. L. Bowen,
Springfield, Ill.
My Dear Sir:—

I have read with great care your recent letter addressed particularly to the people of Jacksonville with reference to your department's purpose toward the three State Institutions here.

What you said as to the School for the Deaf was of special interest to me. After graduating from college I spent 4 years in that school as supervisor; then one year as a fellow in the National Deaf Mute College at Washington; then one year as superintendent of the Chicago schools for the Deaf. Again my wife's father was one of the first teachers in the school and remained a teacher there until his death and she also taught there until we were married. Pardon these personal references. From them you see the reason for my special interest.

Twenty years of active law practice have not taken from me my deep interest in the deaf and their education. I feel so strongly that you and your department are grievously wronging the deaf children committed to your care that I cannot let the occasion pass without making a plea in their behalf. This is not in the spirit of fault finding and criticism but is a statement of the case from an angle evidently different from your view point, given to those in whose honesty and sincerity of purpose I have implicit confidence. I shall refer to the State Hospital for the Insane and the School for the Blind only incidentally.

Recalls Institution's Early Days

You say the plan for the School for the Deaf was badly run down, badly in need of repair and little money set aside for these purposes. Whose fault was this? Do you mean to tell us that the great State of Illinois had deliberately refused to appropriate sufficient funds to maintain this institution? If this is true it is because the matter was not properly presented to the Legislature. In the olden days Dr. Gillett went personally before the legislative committee and told them frankly what he was and with infinite patience explained the reasons why. There was always a ready response. Other causes might wait, but these wards of the State, shut out by misfortune from the ordinary educational institutions, must be cared for, cared for right, and so in those days Illinois boasted the greatest School for the Deaf in the whole world. Further, in those days members of the legislature came to Jacksonville and visited the school. They saw the little fellows fresh from their homes, little animals hardly able to make known their simplest wants; then they saw what was done for them until the boys and girls went out, independent citizens, able to care for themselves and do their part in the normal life of the great State.

The greater part of your letter is taken up with a recital as to what you have done at the State Hospital for the Insane. Fine. A great work. I remember the day when the State Hospital was administered as a source of political jobs, for ward heelers, from whom the Governor of the State collected a 2% slush fund, based on the wages received. It is a far cry from those days, not so long passed, to present conditions. In your zeal for the mentally afflicted I beg you to remember that the School for the Deaf is an independent institution, with its own problems. One danger of a single board over all State Institutions is that its members may become so interested in the work of one institution that others are lost sight of and slighted.

Agriculture Taught for Years

You say the school has never pretended to teach agriculture and its allied subjects were taught in the past. For years, to my personal knowledge, agriculture and its allied subjects were taught and indeed I was not aware that the teaching had been discontinued. For four years I daily visited every school room and every industrial department. The farmer had his class of boys, one set in the forenoon and another in the afternoon, assigned, just as boys were assigned to the shoe shop, the bakery and the other industrial departments. They were taught the care of horses, the care of the cows, yard work, garden work, general farm work in all its branches.

You say your purpose is to make the school strictly educational. What do you mean by that? Our public schools are strictly educational, yet they teach agriculture, manual training, domestic science, etc., etc. As you well say: "To give them every opportunity to learn that which will make them independent when they leave school is the first consideration. As I view it whoever will do that is educational, whether it will be a course in reading or a course in farming. In other words education consists in training both mind and hand. For the deaf manual training is especially important. Their handicap makes this true. For the vast majority of them independence must come through the work of their hands. Especially is this true when it is remembered that deafness in many cases has come through a severe sickness which impaired mental ability.

In my judgment, and it is a judgment formed after the best thought of which I am capable, in many, many cases too much time has been devoted to mental training and too little to the training of the hand. The great need today in the schools for the Deaf is manual training. Not the manual training too often given, which is simply putting a boy in a shop presided over by some second rate artisan with a political pull, who may be perfectly willing but who has not the slightest knowledge of real teaching but real manual training by a teacher, a real teacher, prepared to teach. In the case of the deaf manual training is all important. What field, pray, offers more than common ordinary farming, which includes the care of the yard, the garden, the dairy? When, pray, in this agricultural State, and he counts over, was there such a demand for farm labor? You should be opening his door wider instead of closing it altogether. You can not judge its value merely by the number of bushels raised.

Deaf Should Do Farm Work

You say "that the three institutions have taken under cultivation large tracts of additional land without a cent of extra expense to the State." You mean by that that the State Hospital has done so. I do not object to the patients in the State Hospital having all opportunity to employ themselves to the betterment of their condition, and to the profit of the State, but I do object to your mixing these insane patients up with deaf children of all ages even though perchance it may mean the saving of a few paltry dollars. I do not object to these patients doing farm work on detached lands, separate and apart from the children. If you wish to have those patients do the farm work at the School for the Deaf during vacation, well and good but don't like the idea of their doing it while school is in progress. Let the deaf boys do the ground and garden work of the institution while school is in session, and also all the farm work possible, but not mixed up with insane patients. I am not versed in pedagogy but my common sense tells me that insane patients should be kept away from children.

Go up to Champaign and see the educational plant the State provides for its normal children, consider the millions that we spend annually for their education, then tell me if you will that public economy, institutional efficiency, demand that the deaf boys be shut out of garden and farm work and their place taken by insane patients. What is the school for the deaf? The people of Jacksonville do not approve what is being done at the school for the deaf. If the people of the State knew they would not approve, indeed if they knew such a storm would arise as would effectually stop present procedure I fully apprehend that these are days of war emergency, when retrenchment is the order of the day, but the Imperial State of Illinois still can raise enough money to educate its deaf and dumb children.

Very truly,
L. O. Vaughn.

QUINCY LAWYER

FACES DISBARMENT

Attorneys Proceed Against Theodore Pape, Charged With Disloyal Utterances.

Quincy papers recently have had much to say about the case of Theodore B. Pape, a well known attorney of the Gem City, who has been held to the grand jury for investigation of certain disloyal remarks. It is said that Pape admits the remarks charged against him, wherein he affirmed his sympathy for the imperial German government. Subsequent to the investigation which resulted in Pape's being held to the grand jury, the Adams county bar association at a special meeting took his name from the membership roll and a committee was appointed to submit a report to Attorney General Brundage with the purpose of having the attorney disbarred.

Pape, who is a long time resident of Quincy, has been a successful lawyer and is reputed to be a man of wealth. He was for years a member of the firm of Carter, Govey & Pape, which was dissolved some years ago. Mr. Pape in addition to his disloyal utterances has absolutely refused to assist in any way in carrying on war activity, will not buy bonds or take any other action to indicate that he desires to assist the government at this time.

NEW CIRCUIT COURT CASES.

As the time for filing cases to be heard at the May term of the circuit court is brief, a number of additional cases were filed yesterday. Wilson & Butler brought a suit for trespass for J. Frank Carson by his next friend, William Carson, directed against Simon Fernandez, Roy Fernandez and the City of Jacksonville. Damages in the sum of $500 are asked.

A foreclosure suit has been brought by D. J. Staley for Bertrand Kopmeyer vs George Willerton. The obligation is said to be $300.

Another foreclosure suit is that brought by W. W. Wright for Gertrude Hosp against Mary S. Reynolds. A note for $800 is the basis for this suit.

A suit in assumpsit in the name of C. C. Berryman vs Solomon and Frances Hart has been brought by W. N. Hairgrove, the papers indicating an obligation of $700.

The praecipe in the suit in assumpsit of Lowitz & Co. vs T. S. Knoles has been filed by Paul P. Samuell as attorney for the complainant. The amount of the alleged damages is $750.

Earl S. Gunter by next friend, Delmar Gunter, has brought a trespass on the case proceeding against E. L. Clark. Damages in the amount of $5,000 are asked. The complainant is represented by Wilson & Butler.

MRS. CRAWFORD RETURNS.

Mrs. E. W. Crawford has returned from her extended sojourn in Gainesville, Georgia and will once more be in God's country. She is looking quite well after her sojourn in the balmy winter atmosphere of the southernmost state and is glad to be at home once more.

DENOUNCES ORGANIZED VIOLENCE OF I. W. W.

W. C. Fitts, Assistant Attorney General of U. S., Describes the Workings of Agitators—Make War on Legitimate Labor Organizations.

Jackson, Miss., May 2.—Organized violence of Industrial Workers of the World was described and denounced by William C. Fitts, assistant attorney general of the United States in an address here tonight before the Mississippi State Bar association. Mr. Fitts, who has had charge of the nationwide campaign against I. W. W. agitators and the prosecution of many leaders since the United States entered the war, declared the German government encourages spreading of the doctrines of sabotage in the United States, Russia and other allied countries. Civil processes, he said, are sufficient to catch the agitators and martial law as proposed by bills in congress is entirely unnecessary.

The I. W. W. are related by their theories to international Reds, Bolsheviki, and other revolutionists, said Mr. Fitts, and all "are making war, first on legitimate labor organizations and on the very social fabric which protects them and us."

Prevent Increase in Crops.

Mr. Fitts said he had extensive evidence that the I. W. W. "have prevented the raising of crops by practicing sabotage in the planting, sowing and reaping. They have put phosphorous balls in shocks of wheat, in bales of hay and in barns," he said. "They have destroyed harvesting machinery and placed dynamite in the sheafs. They have destroyed mature fruit trees by driving copper nails into them below the surface of the ground."

"They have destroyed mining machinery, especially in the copper mines and in the mines where the minerals essential to the conduct of the war are mined or produced. They have fired the forests, particularly the forests of spruce; that being the wood essential for making airplanes. They have destroyed saws in the sawmills by driving pieces of steel or iron in the logs so as to break the band saws and unnerve the sawyers. They saw lumber shorter than standard length. The I. W. W. have surrounded court houses and packed court rooms for the purpose of putting over their plans. They have taken possession of railroad trains and assaulted and murdered the train crews. They misused freight, misplaced signal lights, and put emery dust or sand in journal boxes on railroad cars."

Other Bad Work.

"Members of the organization place foreign substances in food in hotels and restaurants, break crockery, dip table forks in crude oil, use stink pots in dining rooms and put bed bugs in beds. They plant trees upside down, shock grain with the heads down, hoe up potato vines instead of weeds, bruise apples and other fruit in packing. They remove units from carefully adjusted machinery, misplace and omit part of 'copy' in printing offices and put foreign substances in canned goods."

"No man can be an I. W. W. who possesses as much as $50 in money or property, or who has permanent employment, or who becomes a soldier or a sailor of any country."

"They view with alarm the preparation of the country to resist its foreign enemies, because they not only would gladly witness the triumph of those enemies but also because they do not want the country to be prepared to meet and stamp out the anarchy which they intend to foment from within. All their communications begin with the words, 'Dear Comrade,' and end with the words, 'Yours for the Revolution.' While our precious boys are freely pouring their youth on the battle fields of France, the administration is bringing to bear, and bravely, every orderly process of the law for the suppression of this propaganda and the eradication of this poison. If the present statutes, intended for fairly decent people, cannot reach these devils, then congress, which is neither backward nor pussyfooted, will pass laws which will catch them."

PRESBYTERIANS HELD CONFERENCE HERE

Work Among Young People Received Special Consideration—Experts in This Work Came for Conference.

Presbyterians in Jacksonville and surrounding territory attended a conference on young people's work held at Westminster church yesterday afternoon and evening. The churches at Virginia and Arenzville were represented as well as those in this city. The conference was the fourth of a series held this week in the Springfield presbytery, the first being at Decatur.

The local committee of arrangements included Rev. R. B. Wilson, Rev. E. B. Landis and Rev. W. E. Spoons. The conference began at 4:15 in the afternoon and continued thru an evening session. Supper was served at 6:15 and during the program afterward Mr. Landis presided. Reports were made by representatives of the Arenzville and Virginia churches and by the three local churches.

There were addresses by Dr. Gerritt Verkuy and Mr. William R. Hall and open discussion of the various problems followed. Another visitor was Rev. Marion Humphreys, special worker in this presbytery. Some of the subjects considered were "Youth and the Home," "Our Young People's Program," "The Christian Challenge of Youth," "The Right Foundation."

Mr. Hall, who is known as an expert in young people's work, represents the general assembly as he directs this department of work. Dr. Verkuy represents the board of Sunday school education. Altogether the conference was of a very helpful kind. The women of Westminster church served an excellent supper.

STAMP SALES FOR APRIL

Postmaster R. I. Dunlap yesterday gave out the totals for the sale of War Savings and Thrift stamps for April. The sales totaled $90,000. This illustrates what small amounts will do if the work is pushed.

The men at postoffice in charge of the stamps sales are deserving of much credit as it requires a great deal of work in tabulating and reporting this branch of office work.

Interest seems to be increasing in War Savings and Thrift stamps and the sales run to a good total each day. This probably is because of the efforts of school children who have been working hard to make a good showing for their respective rooms.

STATE STREET WOMEN PRESENT FLAG

Emblem Received by F. J. Andrews for Passavant Hospital—Aid Society Had Busy Session.

The Ladies' Aid Society of State Street church had a busy time Wednesday with an all day session at the church. The most notable event of the day was the presentation of a handsome flag to Passavant hospital. This flag was presented by Mrs. C. A. Barnes on behalf of the trustees of Passavant hospital. The recipient made brief remarks in receiving the flag for the hospital and it will be given a conspicuous place at the institution.

The aid society some months ago presented a flag to Co. B, then another flag to the church and subsequently prepared the service flag, so that abundant proof of the patriotism of the ladies has been given. The ceremony yesterday included the adding of another star to the service flag, this one for Warren Nixon who is now at Camp Devens. There were eighteen members of the society present at the dinner served at noon and there were twenty five during the afternoon hours and the time was spent in Red Cross sewing. Seven hospital shirts were finished and a number of garments were made for the layettes.

Before adjournment the society by unanimous vote contributed $10 toward the present Y. M. C. A. campaign. As a perusal of this varied program will indicate, it was indeed a busy and a patriotic session.

STATE OUTLINES HOG SERUM RULES

Special Attention Now Called to Them as Season for Extensive Vaccination Is at Hand.

Dr. A. T. Peters, chief veterinarian of the state of Illinois, acting for the division of animal husbandry for the state department of agriculture, some time since issued the regulations relative to the distribution and use of anti-hog cholera serum. Attention is now being called to these regulations because the season is at hand when the largest amount of vaccination work is done. A copy of the rules has been received by G. B. Kendall, Morgan county agent, and they are published for the benefit of stock men in this community.

The following regulations have been formulated to supersede all previous regulations, in force within the state of Illinois, to govern the sale, distribution and use of anti-hog cholera serum and hog cholera virus:

"1. All the anti-hog cholera sold within or imported into the state of Illinois for sale, distribution or use shall be produced under license granted by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry.

"2. All hog cholera virus used for immunizing hogs against cholera shall be administered by licensed veterinarians, or by owners to whom a permit has been issued by the chief veterinarian.

"In the matter of controlling outbreaks of cholera any violations of the following provisions of 'An act to prevent the spread of contagious and infectious diseases among swine,' should be promptly reported to local authorities and compliance therewith demanded.

"It shall be the duty of the owner or person having charge of any swine to burn or deeply bury in quick lime, the carcasses of all hogs dying of cholera, and to thoroughly clean and disinfect by a liberal use of air-slacked lime or other standard disinfectant, all yards and feed lots accessible to hogs affected with cholera.

"No person shall convey upon, or along any public highway or other grounds or any private lands, any swine known to be affected with cholera."

WAR DEPARTMENT SEEKS CLEANER ARMY

Robbins Russel of New York Now in Social Hygiene Division of War Department, Writes Dr. C. E. Black for Suggestions.

Dr. C. E. Black yesterday received the following communication from Robbins Russel, who is in army work connected with the social hygiene division, section on men's work.

The general activities of the committee for civilian co-operation in combatting venereal diseases, of the council of national defense, have been transferred to the war department.

Mr. Russel's letter in part follows:

War Department, Commission on Training Camp Activities, Washington.

New York, April 29, 1918. Dr. Carl Black, Jacksonville, Ill.

"My Dear Dr. Black: The enclosed letter and other material represents the latest angle in the government's campaign against venereal disease and prostitution, thruout the country.

"In the experience of this commission since the beginning of the war, it has been more and more brought out that the 'man behind the gun' must be reached at an early real preventive progress is to be made. The enclosed is one of the angles we are working along to achieve this end. As yet, it is merely an experiment, having gone out to 2,500 of the leading manufacturers and employers of labor thruout the country, but upon their reception it depends very largely our future attitude.

"Please feel free to criticize or suggest changes in this material if your experience with all grades and types of human beings makes you feel that certain points could be improved. Please at the same time do not feel under any obligation to acknowledge this letter, inasmuch as I am merely sending it to you because of your interest in public health and because I know this is more or less a new line of attack."

Enclosed in the letter are various pamphlets and other literature bearing on the social evil. It is the object and intention of the commission to interest industrial plant heads in this work of disease prevention so that the forces arrayed against the Hun may be the cleaner and stronger.

Profit by Europe's Experience.

Uncle Sam is determined to have a clean army. He has learned from Europe's experience. Gonorrhea and syphilis. It is said, have swept the contending armies like a plague. They have often done more damage to military effectiveness than the engines of death. Literally, hundreds of thousands of soldiers have been kept from the firing line by these evils. Of 23000 patients in one European hospital, 25 per cent had syphilis. In another section, 17,000 cases of venereal diseases were concentrated.

The war department is waging a vigorous and widespread campaign to prevent such conditions in the American army. It is using picture films, booklets, lectures, exhibits, placards and as a last resort severe punishment, to reduce the venereal disease date in the camps. When they started this campaign, they were told it wouldn't work—nothing ever had worked; therefore nothing would. But it is working and today the venereal disease rate in our camps is lower than it has been in any army in the world.

But it is not low enough yet. A large percentage of the venereal disease in the camps today was brought in from civil life. The camp surgeons tell us that we must attack the problem thru industrial channels—reach the men before they are called.

Therefore plant heads employing large numbers of men are urged to co-operate with the government in this work and to distribute the literature to the men. Place educational slips in the pay envelopes, post placards, etc. The immediate thing is to prevent further infection.

SOLDIER LIFE AT AVIATION FIELD

Sylvanus Scott in Army Service Writes Some Interesting Facts From Ft. Worth—At Tallaferro Field Since Feb. 1st—Has Taken First Flight.

Winfield Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Scott of Franklin, is in the army service located at Tallaferro aviation field near Ft. Worth, Tex. For the past eight years this young Morgan county man has been living in California but he visited his home near Franklin just before Christmas, spending a number of weeks with friends and relatives. About Feb. 1 he enlisted as a motor mechanic in the signal corps of the aviation division and after a month at Jefferson Barracks was sent to Tallaferro field, near Ft. Worth. This field was occupied by the Canadian aviation squadron until last month. Mr. Scott writes in a very interesting way giving some points about camp life and army service which have not been mentioned by other soldier writers. Paragraphs from two recent letters are given herewith:

Tallaferro Aviation Field No. 2, Squadron 274, Ft. Worth, Tex. April 17, 1918.

Dear Mother:

Just received your letter and was glad to hear from you. However, I haven't had any papers or the receipt I wrote for. I suppose they must have gone to Field No. 2. I got left on the pay again the other day when the rest got theirs and now will have to wait till next month. I got the box of cookies and the socks. The cookies were nice and moist but did not last long. That tie will have to be worn after I get out of this army unless I send it home, for the army regulations say we are allowed to wear only black ties. What I wanted was one of those narrow black ones that tie the same as this one.

I got another shot in the arm last Friday and am to get another this Friday. The doctors here are different than at Jefferson Barracks for here they have us excused from all duty for the first 24 hours after getting a shot while at J. B. they always tried to see how hard a job they could give us. Those shots seem to work pretty hard on some fellows but mine only made my arm red and a little stiff for a couple of days.

In Charge of Hangar.

We had a lot more rain Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. Sunday night it rained, hailed and the wind blew like fury all night. I didn't get to sleep more than an hour or two all night. I don't think I have told you about my new job. Since I came back here a week ago they put me in charge of a hangar. I am to have a number of machines (planes) perhaps ten. I have eight now and twelve men to take care of them. There is one man in charge of three hangars and we take our orders from him. They have the men classed as fitters and riggers.

I have the fitters or mechanics and another fellow has the riggers or men who look after the wings and wires all over the planes. I was told today that we were to be here about three months and get all we could out of this work and then we were to be sent to France for more training. I think that a lot of these fellows need the training as they keep getting stuck in the mud. Yesterday the major got stuck near the hangar and when I sent some men out to help him get out he wanted me to keep one there so that no one else would do as he had done.

I told him that I was short of men but would put out a red flag and did so. I put out two of them but the birds couldn't keep out of the mud hole. They tried to go back and the flag and of course got stuck. The flag and of course got stuck. The flag and of course got stuck. The flag and of course got stuck.

I wish you would take the job of getting some of the folks to write to me oftener. I think there are about four letters due me. Hoping this finds you well, I am,

Your son,

Winfield.

MAKING THE MOST OF TIME.

A busy man is Dr. C. E. Black and his friends often wonder how he manages to fill as many engagements in a day's time. He spends busy hours at the hospitals each day, takes care of office visitors in the afternoon, attends to exacting duties on the exemption board and is very frequently called out of the city. Recent experiences told to a friend and not for publication indicate some of the methods he follows for getting over the ground rapidly.

Wednesday he was called to testify in a case in court in Winchester and being pressed for time he filled the automobile tank with gasoline and set sail for the capital of little Scott. Both attorneys were courteous and the judge likewise so the doctor was permitted to give his testimony at once and was back in Jacksonville within two hours of the time he left home.

Not long since he was summoned to Bowling Green, Missouri to testify in a case there and that meant the loss of a day even if he made good connections and found accommodating people in court. Unfortunately his train was late and when he arrived he found he had but forty minutes to stay in

ROCK ISLAND NOW DRY TERRITORY

Appeal to Patriotism Played Prominent Part in the Campaign Against Saloon—Drastic Measures to Prevent Bootlegging Promised.

Rock Island, Ill., May 1.—This was the last "wet" day for Rock Island, site of the big government arsenal. At 11 p. m. the city will become "dry" territory for the first time in its history.

Forty saloons and more than a score of wholesale houses will cease doing business at that time as a result of the verdict of voters at a township election April 2.

Two years ago the city of Moline, adjoining Rock Island on the east, became dry under the local option law. July 1, 1917, saloons were banished from Davenport, just across the Mississippi by Iowa's prohibition law. These happenings focused the retail and wholesale dispensing of intoxicants for the surrounding country within a radius of 50 miles, in this city.

Regulation of the traffic became more difficult and reform agencies became more active until late last February when the federal department of justice closed 51 saloons and 24 wholesale houses doing business within half a mile of Rock Island arsenal and established a vice zone five miles from the military establishment which included all of Rock Island, Moline and Davenport. A corps of federal officers was established here and scores of prosecutions followed. Transportation of liquor from Rock Island into Iowa which had been carried on extensively in defiance of law, was practically stopped.

In the campaign against the saloon prior to the April 2 election, an appeal to patriotism played a prominent part and was especially effective with women voters who returned an overwhelming majority against the saloon and overcame the "wet" verdict of the male voters.

Drastic measures to prevent boot-legging after May 1 are promised by local authorities and they will have the co-operation of the federal department of justice, who will continue to make their headquarters here.

SCOTT COUNTY MAN WRITES FROM CAMP

Interesting Letters Received by Relatives of Alva Stainforth, Now in Training at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. J. H. Stainforth of Winchester has received the following letters from her son, Alva Stainforth, now located at Camp Hancock, Ga. He was recently transferred from Camp Greenleaf, Ga., along with six hundred other men. The young man describes in glowing terms the life at camp and adds, "I don't know when we will go across, but we are likely to get most of our training in France." The letters are printed herewith:

April 14, 1918.

Base Hospital, Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga.

Dear Folks at Home—You can thank the Y. M. C. A. man for this letter, for had it not been for him I would not have been able to write. He brought a large grip full of paper and envelopes and passed them around to us.

We are not allowed to leave the base hospital reservation for a few days without a pass and we can not get a pass until they issue us an identification tag, and there is no Y. M. C. A. within our limits, but one not far away. I am having a good time and like it fine.

We were expecting to leave Greenleaf several days before we did and never knew until the night before that we were to leave for sure or would have written sooner. We slept with our clothes on several nights, expecting to be called out at any hour, but were not called until 4:30 Thursday morning. We hurried to get our breakfast and pack our bags and then marched to the train, about three miles away, to catch the train. Six hundred of us left on the same train. There were four companies and two of them left us at Atlanta. One stayed at Atlanta and the other went to Macon, Ga. There are base hospitals at both places. The rest of us came here.

All of the men in Co. E did not get to come and they certainly hated to see us leave. Two of my tent mates did not come. I believe this is a better camp than Greenleaf. There is nothing but sand here and at Greenleaf it was all rocks and mud.

We don't know just what our work will be, but we expect to get busy this week. It is not as hot here as you would expect. It gets rather cold during the night. When we left Greenleaf the ground was almost covered with snow. They say it has not been as cold here at this time of the year for thirty years.

I don't know how long we will be here, but I don't think it will be very long. We are close to the Savannah river and the South Carolina line and about 120 miles from the coast, about half a day's ride. We were issued a new pair of shoes and a blouse before we left. My shoes were too large and I will have to change them.

There are lots of Red Cross nurses here, but not many officers. We will have our full quota of nurses before we go across. I think there are to be one hundred or more nurses. I don't know when we will go across, but we are likely to get most of our training in France.

Your son,
Alva Stainforth,
Base Hospital,
Camp Hancock,
Augusta, Ga.

Dear Folks—We moved into our regular barracks today. I will give you some idea of it. It is about twice as long as the Old Fellows' building there and some higher. On one side are the sleeping porches one above the other, and they reach the whole length of the building.

There are at present three of these buildings full. Two of them with us fellows and the other with sick men and cripples. Each building will accommodate eighty men, besides the officers, and each has private bed rooms and four toilets. The toilets are nice; all are white enameled. We can wash our clothes there if we wish, but I sent my clothes to the laundry this week. We have live electric lights in our room.

We will get our full equipment some time this week or next. Are my letters ever opened? One has to be particular what he writes. One of our men has been working in the pus room at the hospital. Yesterday he drank a lot of the alcohol used to sterilize the instruments and insulted two nurses and cursed the officer of the day. He is likely to get his term in the guard house. We certainly have good eats, lots of butter, good coffee, lemonade, potatoes, all kinds of meats and everything you could think of. I am getting fat. I guess I have gained ten pounds or more. I haven't done a thing since I got here.

We had an inspection this morning and a physical examination yesterday morning. I am going to town Saturday if I can. This is the third letter I have written to you in less than a week. They are rushing things awfully fast here. They are building three or four barracks like the one I am in in less than two weeks.

They send a fellow to the hospital here if he only has a slight cold. I am mighty fine and never felt better in my life. Hope you are all well.

With love,
Alva.

"ALL IN A NUT SHELL."

That nuts are perhaps the most valuable of all natural foods, is generally agreed upon by food specialists. They have been recommended to us to take the place of meat; a few like the chestnut, can be ground into flour; all save shortening when used in bread and cake. A vegetarian once described nuts as "bread and butter, fat, eggs, cheese and milk—all in a nut shell." Certainly they are the vegetarian standby for real nutrition.

This information becomes all important when considered in connection with the new nut butter which is the successor to the old-fashioned butter supplied by the cow. Butter made from the white meat of the cocoanut is certainly appetizing—we know it is pure and wholesome and made by the modern methods which we like to think of in connection with food products. The knowledge that this nut fat is equally nutritious, digestible and easily assimilated as actual butter fat will make white-meat-of-cocoanut butter our most appreciated new food.

Thus Americans may congratulate themselves on the progress of scientific commercial methods, which allow American manufacturers to offer this wholesome, appetizing, reasonably priced food. For the butter problem would be even greater than it is today were it not for the so-called "butter" substitutes. We should certainly be paying at least one dollar a pound for the old-fashioned product of creamery if science had not come to the rescue with fats from the vegetable kingdom.

The discovery that "butter" fat may be vegetable fat as well as what we might call "cow" fat will save the ultimate consumer millions of dollars, as well as improve quality at his table. Nut made butter can be recommended from every possible standpoint—for quality, nutritive value, digestibility, flavor, and above all, the hygienic cleanliness so satisfactory to reflect upon, which everywhere characterizes the modern plants which make our new food products.

The Troco Nut Butter Co., with plants at Milwaukee and Chicago is among the first to discover nature's gift and apply scientific methods to the perfection of a process which offers us this wholesome, hygienic, digestible, sweet flavored appetizing food.

A lady of the Old People's Home says:

WALLACES WALLOP TOMLINSON'S TEAM

Win Close Game by Score of 6 to 5—Dunscomb Allows Tomlinson's But Three Safeties—Goveia and Cully Get Triples.

In one of the most exciting games of the year the Wallaces defeated the Tomlinson's on Illinois field Thursday afternoon by a score of 6 to 5.

The game was fast and hard fought thruout. The Tomlinson's scored three runs in the first inning. However, with one run in the first and two in the second the Wallaces tied the count. Tomlinson's team took the lead by scoring two runs in the third, only to have the Wallace's tie it up in the fourth.

After blanking the Tomlinson's in the fifth the Wallace's won by scoring a run in their half of the fifth with one man down.

The game was featured by the pitching of Dunscomb who allowed the Tomlinson's but three safeties. Two of these were made by Cully, one of them being for three bases.

Daigh held the Wallace's to six hits but they were bunched and one of them was a triple by Goveia who was responsible for two of his teams hits. The game was so close it required three umpires to give the decisions. It is not known whether or not an umpire was killed during the contest. The score:

I have just received a letter from you and also your picture. It is surely good of you and how you must be growing since I have been gone. I hardly think I would know you on the street if I were to meet you. Well, I am feeling pretty fine now; I am up to my neck in mud and have been for the past three days. I hope the weather will change before long. I guess you are having some pretty fine weather by this time. I hope it is better than we have been having here.

It is too bad about your fires. You should see some of the things that I have seen and am seeing now. You would say you were in luck not to be here. You ask me if I have seen any of the boys I know over here. I have not but have seen a lot of U. S. boys that I didn't know. Well, she is h—

TROCO

The Successor to Butter

Made From the White Meat of Tropic Coconuts

WHILE European countries have long used butter made from cocoanuts, America has perfected the de luxe product. The flavor of Troco is only rivaled by the finest dairy product. The more critical you are the better you will appreciate the quality of Troco.

Your enjoyment of this new delicacy is increased by the thought of its appetizing ingredients. The fat from the same dainty white coconut meat you use shredded on cake and pure pasteurized milk is an appealing combination.

The fastidious care used in every process of making is another recommendation. The makers of Troco specialize in this one product.

High Nutritive Value

Troco, like butter, is invaluable energy food of the highest nutritive value. It is equally digestible and easily assimilated.

It is not a substitute for butter, but really butter's successor, solving the butter problem for millions.

Oil laws, made before this great discovery, compel us to label it as an oleomargarine, but Troco contains no animal oils—and no preservatives—it is made only from vegetable fats and milk—wholesome, natural ingredients. A capsule of the same vegetable coloring used by butter makers supplied with every carton by your grocer.

Judge It for Quality Alone

Troco wins users on quality alone. You should judge it from this standpoint only. Compare it to the finest creamery butter you have ever used. Serve it without explanation. The unanimous verdict will be "Please pass the Troco."

The Pride of Pre-eminence

THE LEXINGTON reveals a further virtue for the motorist who seeks the ultimate in a medium-price automobile—the pride of ownership. The Minute Man Six is not only the car of fashion but a car that is mechanically pre-eminent—successfully withstanding the most rigid analysis from an engineering standpoint—and easily enduring the most exacting tests to which it can possibly be subjected.

The verdict of the critic who inspects the efficiently functioning mechanism of the chassis is a frank, hearty endorsement of these statements. The Moore Multiple Exhaust System that conserves fuel by producing more horsepower out of less gasoline; the new-type transmission and clutch, so silent and smooth in operation that the car glides away like an electric; the Z-section frame that eliminates more than one-hundred separate parts hitherto bolted on, and that reduces weight while increasing strength; the new-type emergency hand-brake that can be operated with one finger, bringing the car to a quick but gentle stop—all operate as a complete service unit.

In achieving this modern car of mechanical merit, we have adhered to our time-honored policy of aggressively anticipating the flight of fashion in motored vehicles. All features bordering on the bizarre or eccentric have been cast determinedly aside and the finished product is striking evidence of our success

1,000 FEWER SALOONS IN CHICAGO THIS YEAR

CHICAGO, May 1.—There will be approximately 1,000 fewer saloons in Chicago this year than in the year just passed. The period for applying for licenses expired last night and it appeared that thirsty Chicagoans will have to get along with only 5,000 saloons instead of the previous 6,000.

Sunday closing, high prices and absence of men called to the colors, are among the causes.

Fred Ranier of Drake made the city a visit yesterday.

AN EXPLOSION!

Just as the heavy boom and barrage fire is the forerunner of an attack in force, so there is a general feeling of apprehension, dullness, the "blues," giving notice of a coming uric-acid attack—a fear of something going to happen; headache, vertigo, high-colored, over-acid urine—and something does happen. Nature is simply giving warning that there's going to be an uric-acid "explosion." This uric acid poison accumulated within the body and suddenly is driven in an attack on the surrounding tissue structures, resulting in an acute attack of gout, neuralgia, cramps, rheumatism, or out of the body entirely by way of kidneys and bowels, urine becoming simple, safe and harmless. For this reason, one should take warning and avoid the severity of the attack by taking a simple, safe and effective remedy. Drink plenty of hot water between meals and take "Anuric," double strength, after meals. "Anuric" tablets stimulate the proper working of the eliminative organs and insure the removal of waste products from the body. Thus the severe attack is avoided, or in a few days the severe pains of lumbago, rheumatism, neuralgia disappear and one "dips" again. This "Anuric" was the discovery of Dr. Pierce and his able staff at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., where you can obtain trial package by sending for post-charge and wrapping.

Quincy Ill.—"I am glad to tell what Doctor Pierce's Anuric has done for me. It is a fine remedy. I have been a great sufferer for my back and hip for years but Anuric did wonders for me. I have taken two bottles of the tablets and tell everyone what a good medicine it is."—Mrs. Stella Steckdall 644 Madison Street.
